

Puzzle Challenge #126

Jan. 11-22, 2010

Across

3. A large community celebration of some important event important with music, feasting, dancing, and the like.
5. A vault or stone container either underground or above ground for the dead.
7. The very first of something. Can also mean not copied or imitated.
9. A legend is a story handed down by tradition in a culture, sometimes regarded as true.

Down

1. A large safe, a box made out of fireproof, waterproof metal to keep precious belongings.
2. A permanent mark or drawing on the skin made with a needle and ink.
3. A number expressed with one number over the other (a/b) that signifies part of a whole.
4. Having a very high pitch and piercing sound.
6. An instrument that produces an enlarged image of an extremely small object.
8. Anything taken by stealing, or robbing during times of war.